

The Comedy Team of Carl & Buzz

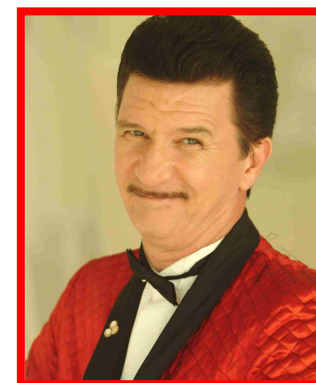

World renowned Filipino entertainer Buzz Belmondo and (former) television network executive Carl Bradley met while working together on a number of television projects. That "on air" collaboration lead to them forming a comedy team and they have been lighting up TV sets and the comedy club circuit with their unique duo act. Their standup duo act is fast moving, spontaneous, and stream of conscious type of comedy that features their unique off the wall sense of humor. Even though there are two of them, they truly are "one of a kind."
